Enjoying daytime heat but cooled by fog from the Pacific Ocean by night, our picturesque Estate vineyard is located along winding Burnside Road, deep in the Russian River Valley appellation. Planted largely to Swan and 115 clones, we have been farming this land since 2001.

Lifted aromas of berries, spices and black tea lead to a layered palate of deep raspberry flavors, licorice and an earthy nuttiness.

The mouthfeel is smooth, almost creamy and gives way to a complex and satisfyingly long finish of coffee, and dark cherry.

Our Willowbrook Cellars 2014 Estate-grown Russian River Pinot noir drinks well now but will benefit from aging for the next five years.

We recommend pairing it with chicken and nut stuffing, baked salmon with mushroom or classic paella.
