Despite being one of the smallest AVAs in the country, the famed Napa Valley needs no introduction. The region's Mediterranean climate and geology have consistently produced such high quality wines that the tiny growing region enjoys an unparalleled reputation.

Our old-world-style Willowbrook 2019 Napa Valley Chardonnay is a great example of one of the region's signature varietals: Aromas of red apple and melon abound. On the palate the wine deftly combines subtle, fresh acidity with a nuanced creaminess and interwoven flavors of peach and lemon meringue, complemented by notes of gingerbread. The finish is clean and minerally, yet rich, with lasting impressions of oaky vanilla, pear and brown sugar.

While the Willowbrook 2019 Napa Valley Chardonnay is a great stand-alone wine, it pairs naturally with white fish in a buttery sauce or late summer harvest vegetables.
